(54) Title: BLENDING SYSTEM

(57) Abstract: A method, for obtaining a mix of a plurality of matters in a fluid state comprises providing for a first matter of the plurality of matters a first flow of matter. For each matter of the plurality of matters distinct from the first matter, a flow of matter is provided at a determined flow rate. The method further comprises gathering each flow of matter at an inlet of a mixer, the mixer continuously producing at an outlet a substantially homogeneous flow of matter corresponding to the mix.
